

We look to both the mission and life of Jesus and the example of our patron saint, Saint Peter Claver for our understanding of commitment to the service of others. Grounded in the Gospel of Matthew 25 and the Works of mercy of our faith we understand our focus of mercy lies in the service of the least both locally and globally.

Service-Learning is a teaching and learning approach that integrates meaningful community service with instruction and faith reflection.

Indirect Service channels resources rather than working directly with individuals needing a particular service.

Direct Service learning requires personal contact with people in need. This type of service provides a rewarding opportunity for students because while in the process of helping others face to face they are able to interact, experience first-hand what people deal with and receive immediate positive feedback.

Catholic Worker House 18 Clark Street

hartfordcatholicworker.org Please find out more about the work of the Hartford Catholic Worker.

Our role at The Catholic Worker House will be to have fun, get to know the kids of the neighborhood, and tutor.

Wednesday Afternoons 3:30-5:30pm. (Not on the days we serve at Imma Care Shelter)

We arrive with the neighborhood kids and have a snack. Tutor for 30 minutes, play in the back yard, (basketball or swings) play inside (board games, arts & crafts) clean up and depart.

Saturday Morning: 9:30am- 1:30pm

Most of the morning centers around fun, concluding with a community lunch. We can prepare lunch at Saint Peter Claver if we want and arrive later. This would be once a month.

Children's Liturgy of the Word at Saint Peter Claver 10:45am Mass

Every Sunday September through June, we offer the opportunity for young children preschool through grade one to hear the Gospel in the parish hall with a catechist and young people helping to guide. Come to Mass as usual and leave with the little children during Liturgy of the Word, you return at the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Grade 6 through High School are welcome!
